VAPOR

BETA HOTNESS

Not everyone can get to Paris whenever they want to gobble down a macaron. Enter Beta Hotness. A delectable strawberry macaron with a hint of coconut.

PITTED

Fear not the cherry as we have successfully compressed many of them into fine bottles around the globe. A perfectly tart cherry pie with a heaping helping of vanilla ice cream.

SOUR SUMMER

The hometown, county fair of eliquids. The kind you'd find in one of those novelty glasses you're meant to keep, but really only bought for the delicious strawberry lemonade found inside.

FRIDDA

We can all pretend we want to eat healthy, but staring a deep-fried pastry stuffed with fresh granny smith apples is some place we never (or always) want to find ourselves.

SHAKEN PEACH

For the ten months of heat in Texas, this is what we want to be drinking... or vaping. Blended peaches, a dash of pear, a sprinkle of vanilla, and a touch of sugar.
